

I am a listener of low-power station KDRT in Davis, California. This station is wonderful!
It is locally driven, and creates a station that reflects the community in a way that the corporate stations could never do. Please allow low-power to thrive in the United States.
It is a worthwhile use of the public airwaves.
Thanks! Tom Hinds